

ACA STANDARDS FOR ADULT CORRECTIONAL INSTITUTIONS

(From Fourth Edition; See actual publication for additional comments)

Part 5: Inmate Programs, Section F: Religious Programs

Principle: A written body of policy and procedure governs the institution's religious programs for inmates, including program coordination and supervision, opportunities to practice the requirements of one's faith, and use of community resources.

4-4512 (Ref. 3-4454) There is qualified chaplain (or chaplains) with minimum qualifications of (1) clinical pastoral education or equivalent specialized training and (2) endorsement by the appropriate religious certifying body. The chaplain assures equal status and protection for all religions.

4-4513 (Ref. 3-4455) In facilities with an average daily population of 500 or more inmates, there is a full-time chaplain (or chaplains). In facilities with less than 500 inmates, adequate religious staffing is available.

4-4514 (Ref. 3-4456) Revised August 2004 to: Written policy, procedure and practice provide that assigned chaplain(s) (whether they be classified employees, contract employees, or volunteers), in consultation with and approval from facility administration, plans, directs, and coordinates all aspects of the religious program, including approval and training of both lay and clergy volunteers from faiths represented by the inmate population. [Comment: The religious program should be designed to fulfill the institution's responsibility of ensuring that all inmates can voluntarily exercise their constitutional right to religious freedom.]

4-4515 (Ref. 3-4457) The chaplain has physical access to all areas of the institution to minister to inmates and staff.

4-4516 (Ref. 3-4458) Revised August 2004 to: The chaplain or designated staff develops and maintains close relationships with community religious resources. [Comment: Community resources can help augment the delivery of appropriate religious services on special holidays, or, as needed, to meet the requirements of the diversity of religious faiths among inmates.]

4-4517 (Ref. 3-4459) Written policy, procedure, and practice provide that inmates have the opportunity to participate in practices of their religious faith that are deemed essential by the faith's judicatory, limited only by documentation showing threat to the safety of persons involved in such activity or that the activity itself disrupts order in the institution. [Comment: Religious programs include, but are not limited to, access to religious publications, religious symbols, congregate worship/religious services in appropriate space, individual and group counseling, religious study classes, and adherence to dietary requirements, Inmates in administrative segregation are allowed to participate in such religious practices subject to the same limitations stated in the standard. In determining what constitutes legitimate religious practices, the warden/superintendent or designee should consider whether there is a body of literature stating religious principles that support the practices and whether the practices are recognized by a group of persons who share common ethical, moral, or intellectual views.]

4-4518 (Ref. 3-4460) Deleted August 2004 (as was redundant to other standards):
Representatives of all faith groups are available to inmates.

4-4519 (Ref. 3-4460) Revised August 2004 to: When a religious leader of an inmate's faith is not represented through the chaplaincy staff or volunteers, the chaplain or designated staff member assists the inmate in contacting a person who has the appropriate credentials from the faith judicatory. That person ministers to the inmate under the supervision of the chaplain. [Comment: The religious leader can visit at designated regular times, with provision for emergency visits.]

Religious Facilities and Equipment

4-4520 (Ref. 3-4462) Written policy, procedure, and practice require that the institution provide space and equipment adequate for the conduct and administration of religious programs. The institution makes available non-inmate clerical staff for confidential material. [Comment: Sufficient space should be available for congregate worship/religious services, individual counseling, group counseling and/or religious studies, and chaplaincy offices. Equipment, office supplies, and secretarial help should be adequate to meet the needs of the religious program. Volunteers are acceptable as clerical support staff.]

4-4521 (Ref. 3-4463) The chaplain, in cooperation with the institutional administrator or designee, develops and maintains communications with faith communities and approves donations of equipment or materials for the use in religious programs. [Comment: Approval of donations helps insure that equipment and materials are available for approved religious practices and helps avoid accumulation of duplicate or inappropriate materials".]
